UNPUBLISHED RULING FINDING ENTITLEMENT¹

On June 21, 2018, Janardhana Donga sought compensation for shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) following his influenza (“flu”) vaccination on October 22, 2016. Mr. Donga seeks compensation pursuant to the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 through 34 (2012).

On September 8, 2020, Mr. Donga moved for a ruling on the record. Respondent filed his response on March 5, 2021. Findings of fact were then issued on July 21, 2021, finding that Mr. Donga’s shoulder pain began within 48 hours of his vaccination.

In an amended Rule 4(c) report filed on October 4, 2021, respondent stated that he will not continue to defend against Mr. Donga’s claim. Respondent stated that the Division of Vaccine Injury Compensation, Department of Health and Human Services, has reviewed the facts of this case and have concluded that “[r]ecognizing that the Special Master’s factual finding that the onset of petitioner’s shoulder pain occurred within 48 hours of vaccination is the law of the case, respondent advises that he will not defend the case on other grounds during further proceedings before the Office of Special Masters.” Resp’t’s Am. Rep., filed Oct. 4, 2021, at 2.

Special masters may determine whether a petitioner is entitled to compensation based upon the record. A hearing is not required. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-13; Vaccine Rule 8(d). Based upon a review of the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner has established that he is entitled to compensation for his injury.

Accordingly, Mr. Donga is entitled to compensation.

Any questions may be directed to my law clerk, Jason Wiener, at (202) 357-6360.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
